Now write your essay!

Reflect: How much time (roughly) did I spend on each phase? Some phases may be very short.

Fill in BEFORE you hand in your work

Fill in AFTER you get your marked work back

Assessment Objective	What mark do I think I will get?	Why do I think I will get this mark?	What mark did I get?	What do I need to do to develop in this area?
AO1: Knowledge & Understanding
AO2: Analysis
AO3: Evaluation

After you get your marked work back, consider:

How effectively did I address my target(s) from my last essay (if not very, why?):

When setting your target, always refer to your long-term politics tips & DIRT sheet.

Target(s) for next essay:

Target(s) from last inquiry:

Connect and Wonder: Put the essay title in the box and make a mind-map around it. Think carefully about what I am 'Evaluating' in the question. Highlight key terms and concepts to consider when forming my evaluation. Circle examples. In a different colour, add any questions or knowledge gaps I still have for this topic.

Essay title:

Investigate: Where did I look to find the information I needed? Sometimes this will just be my notes, but sometimes I will need to go beyond these.

- Class notes, handouts and OneNote
- Class textbook
- Teacher & peers (if I asked for extra help or advice)
