Investigating others' experiences of lockdown

Whose experience is this? Who are they? Where do they live?	How is this person's story similar to and different from your story?	What do we discover about what they value?

Investigating ideas for helping my community

Source: Title of article:

Name of Website: The Day / Togetherband / Voices of Youth / UN (delete as appropriate)

What information have I found?

What courses of action does the article suggest?

What ideas for action does this information give me?

What could we do locally? What would be good for our community? What are we able to do?

Practical ways to make life better in our communities after COVID-19

Think about some problems you want to solve in your community (local, national or global) and what action YOU could take to improve the situation. Choose between 6 and 8 of these actions to put on your poster. Then decide who in your group will be responsible for each. Don't forget to make sure someone is in charge of giving the poster a TITLE and someone makes a section explaining what you understand by 'community'.

 Problem we want to solve	 Action we want to take	Use this idea on our poster? (✓)	 Who will put this on our poster?

F1 Community Day Reflections

We have talked a lot today about changing the world by changing our community.
But this will only happen if you decide to act on what you have learnt today.

Only you can decide how important that is to you.

What types of action do you think are most likely to be effective, long-term?
Which are you most likely to stick to?
Small things you do often? Big projects?
Things you do alone? Things you do with friends or family? Local or global?

Of the actions discussed today, which are you most likely to actually take?

What could you do practically to make it more likely that you will do this?

Do you think the pandemic will really change anything? Do you think it needs to?

What is the most important thing that you will take away from today?

MYP COMMUNITY DAY: SERVICE AND ACTION - WHAT NEXT?

Following on from our Community Day, you should choose one action that you think you could actually take to help improve life, health and well-being in your immediate community, particularly considering the current Covid pandemic. Be realistic, if you choose something manageable, you will have a much greater chance of succeeding! You can always take more actions when you get into the swing of things.

The action I will take to help improve life in my community is:

Date:

What have you done so far?

Have you encountered any difficulties?

Date:

Have you noticed any positive effects from your action?

Date:

What have you done recently?

What is your next step?

Date:

Have you managed to get others involved in what you are doing?

Date:

Do you need to do anything more or differently to make more of an impact?

Date:

Do you believe you have made a positive impact on your community through your action?

Date:

How successful have you been at maintaining what you set out to do? Sometimes this is hard.
